

The Girl and the Butterfly

Illustration
Areej Omar

Author
Engy Foda

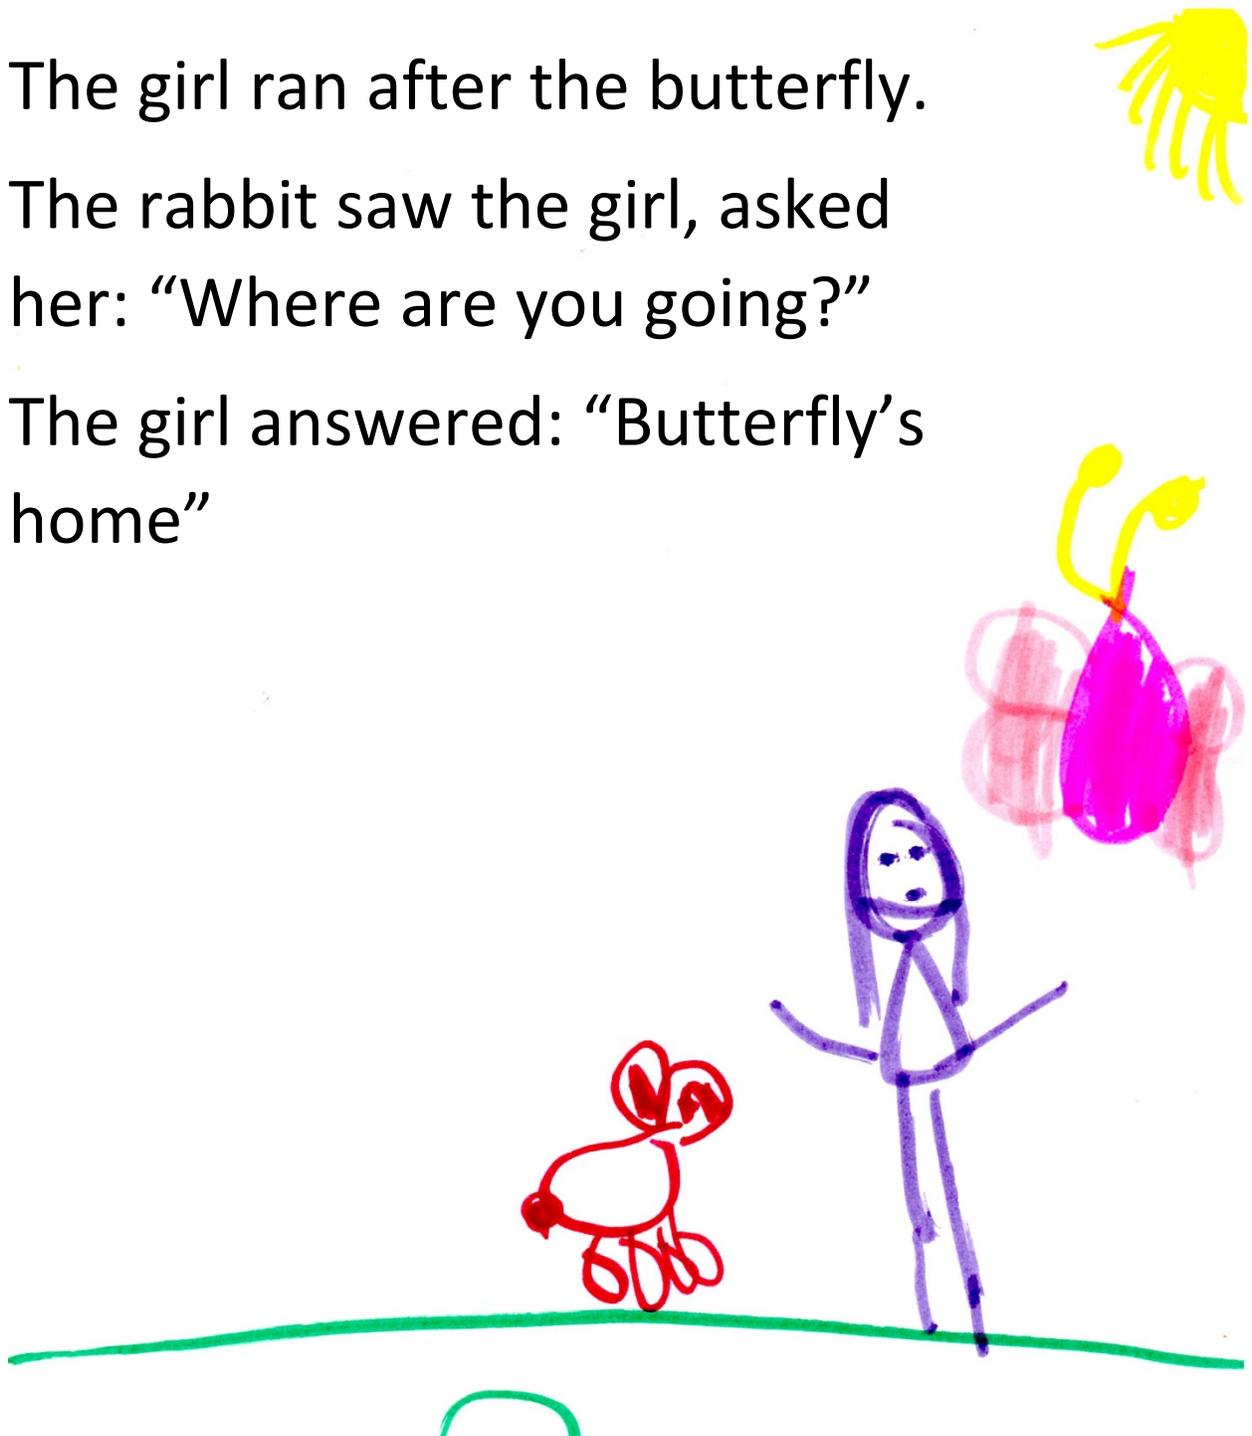

A girl saw a butterfly,
She asked it: "Where are you going?"
The butterfly answered:
"Going home."

The girl ran after the butterfly.

The rabbit saw the girl, asked her: "Where are you going?"

The girl answered: "Butterfly's home"

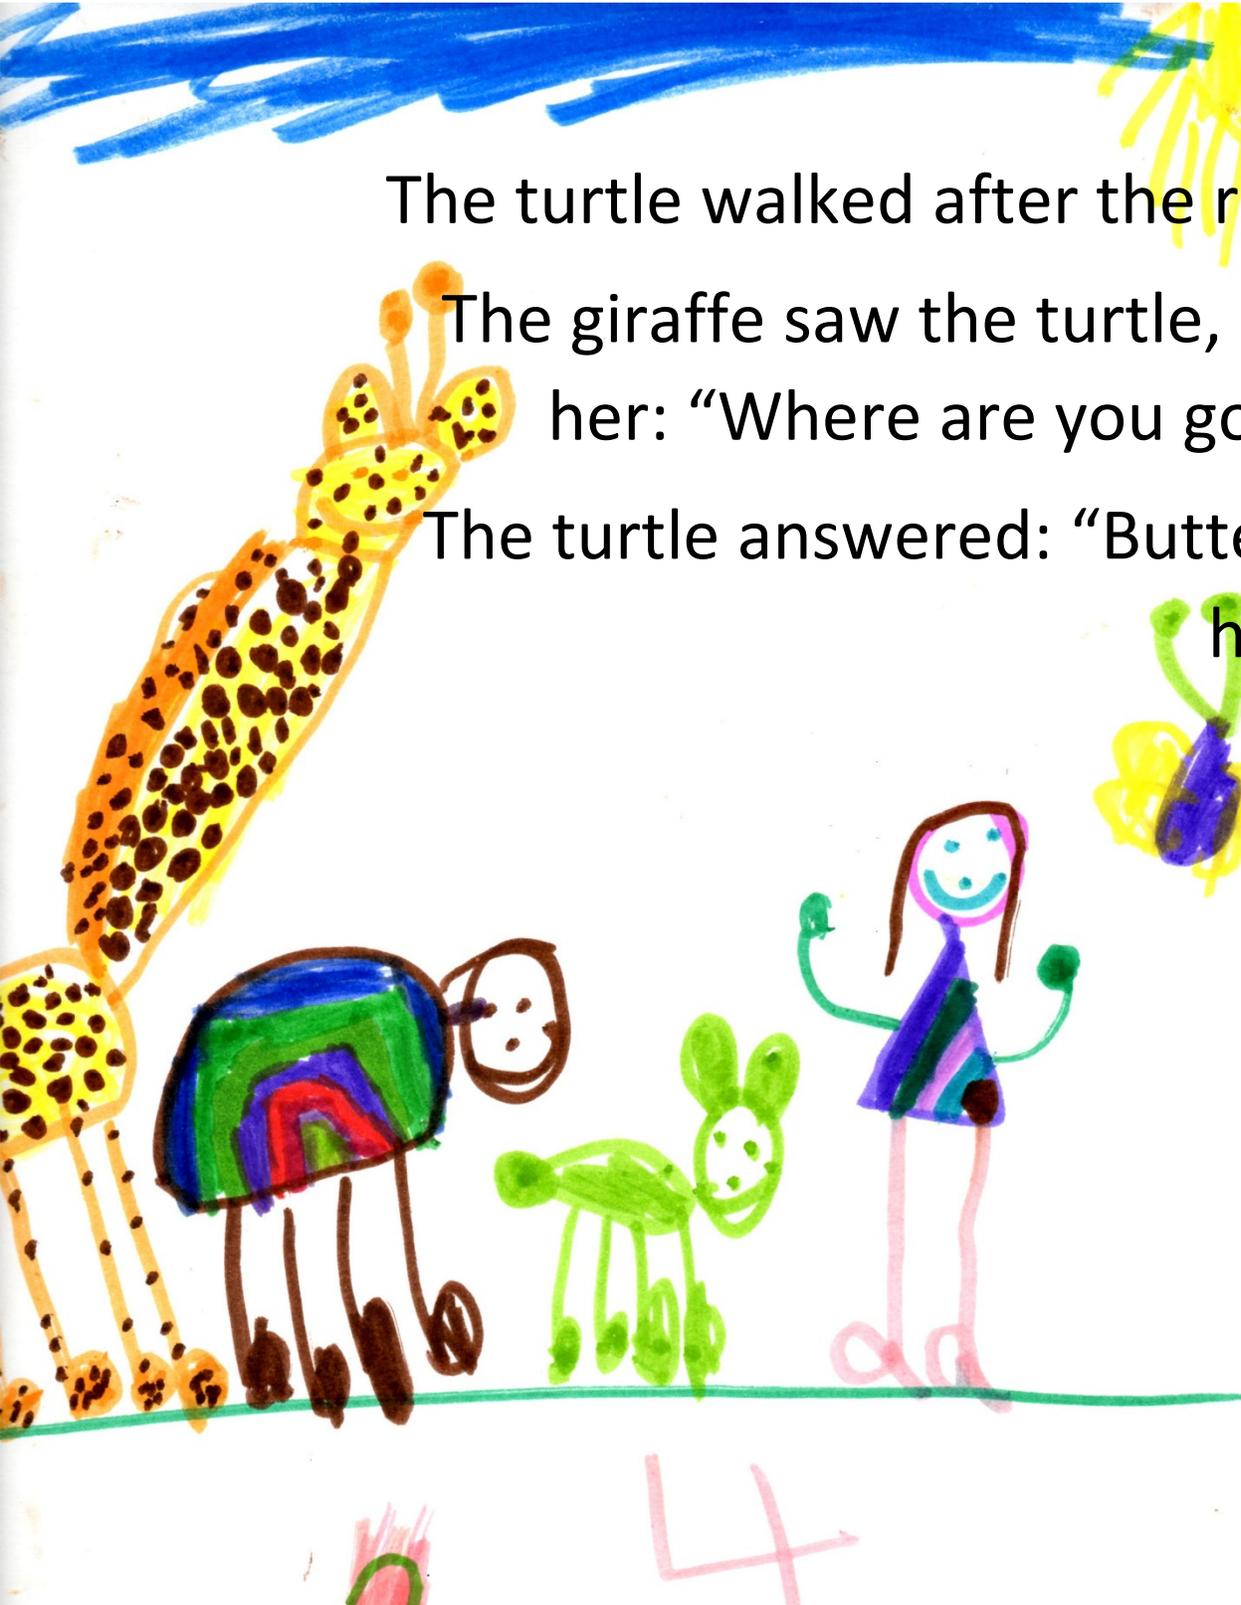

The rabbit ran after the girl.

The turtle saw the rabbit,
asked him: “Where are you going?”

The rabbit answered:
“Butterfly’s home”

3

The turtle walked after the rabbit.

The giraffe saw the turtle, asked her: "Where are you going?"

The turtle answered: "Butterfly's home"

The butterfly got tired and stood on a flower.
Everybody asked her: "Why you stopped flying?"

5

The butterfly answered: "I do not have home, any flower is my home"

This book is a collaboration between the author and her daughter. The author writes the text and her daughter makes the illustrations. This is their first book together, they wish to make many books having simplified scientific information or some moral stories. May Allah accept their work!